

COMMAND TERM

e.g. USA
AO1

Globalisation
AO1

structure (2)

Analyse How Powerful states influence Global Interactions in ways which benefit themselves. [12 marks]

Hard Power
* Military
* trade sanctions

Break down

what does this mean?

summative conclusion

structure (1)	+	-
social culture economic political

S
E
E
P

Aim

This essay will [analyse]...

soft power

* trade
* culture
* diplomacy
* Aid

MF
World Bank
NC's

This essay will analyse how powerful states, such as the USA, influence global interactions in ways which benefit themselves.

Political

Globalisation is the Global interaction is the communication and interweaving of between multiple countries. The USA has a big part in this as they are a powerful state, due to their massive trade industry, and high GDP and large political influence. There are social, economic and political influences and benefits.

*UN
Afghanistan

definition of powerful state

ADD THIS TO THE END OF YOUR INTRODUCTION

Social:

culture:

- Many different cultures in the USA
 - ↳ diversity
 - ↳ growing economy: 'land of opportunities', people migrated especially to work there, therefore bringing new ideas and a developing workforce
- Trump's acknowledgment of Jerusalem being the capital of Israel NAMED E.G.
 - ↳ stronger ties with Israel and Jewish people in America.
- feeling of isolation
- independence from England

Economic:

• IMF and World Bank

- creating ties with other countries
- creates a positive image of the US ENSURE TO ADP
- access to information ^{and influence} on economic policies of member countries DATA ↓ ○
- Globally supports countries
- encourages investment and trade
 - ↳ provides jobs
- provides technical assistance and financial support when the US needs it.

• TNC

- global trade
- spread the American 'way of life'
- gives them power (e.g. create jobs in other countries which they can easily take away)

Political:

• UN

- Aid & assistance ^{from other member states} in times of crisis DATES
- economical benefits through the IMF and World Bank
- American companies are paid in contracts with the United Nations

• Afghanistan

- allows the military industry to keep producing.
- ~~to development of military for war effort~~
- distracts people from problems in the US

①. ENSURE TO COMPLETE YOUR CONCLUSION